Dear Bruce,

Your unique and objective approach towards the development of a strategic plan that builds on our accomplishments has helped our organization realize significant financial savings and improvements to our insurance program. We appreciate the time and effort that you and your team have spent in understanding our organization and our needs. You demonstrate the true meaning of customer service and it is evident that you have a sincere interest in our success.

On behalf of the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs, I offer this letter of appreciation to you for your assistance. We feel that finally, we have a clear understanding of the insurance industry and the products and services we require. As an educated consumer, we are now reaping the benefits of this knowledge and look forward to our continued relationship with the Corporate Protection Group.

Sincerely,

Paul Shaughnessy
General Manager
